Any account which is delinquent by more than one (1) months; that is, not paid by August 1st of the current dues year, will be subject to a late fee (not to exceed 1% per month and reflected on billing statements, said amount not to exceed legal limits). Such late fee will be charged to the delinquent account from July 1st of the current dues year.

In addition, if the delinquent account is not paid by August 1st, then the amount , plus late fees shall become a lien on the property owner's lot and the Association may begin legal collection activities.

Further after a property owner is delinquent for more than one month starting from August 1st, an administrative fee (currently set by the Board at $150 dollars) will be charged to the property owner's account for each delinquent lot. This charge is automatic and must be paid by the delinquent property owner regardless of when the delinquent dues plus any late fees are paid by the property owner. The lien process begins immediately on August 2nd and the administrative fee is not prorated according to how far the Association's collection agent has gone with the lien process. The Association shall recover the amount of the delinquency, late fees, interest, administrative fee and other collection costs and attorney's fees.

The sale or transfer of any lot shall not affect any lien for charges provided for herein. Upon request, the Association shall furnish a statement certifying that the charges against a specified lot have been paid or that certain charges remain unpaid, as the case may be.

Section 2 The assessments levied by the Association shall be used exclusively for the purpose of promoting the recreation, health, safety, and welfare of the Owners (residents) in the Properties, and in particular for the improvement and maintenance or properties, services, and facilities devoted to this purpose and related to the use and enjoyment of the Common properties situated upon the Properties, including but not limited to, the payment of taxes and insurance thereon, and repair, replacement, and additions thereto, and for the cost of labor, equipment, and materials, management and supervision thereof. Assessments shall not be used for exclusive benefit, direct or indirect, of any particular member.

Section 3 Special Assessments for Capital Improvements or Unusual Expenses: In addition to the annual assessments authorized by Article VI, Section 1 (f), the Association may levy in any assessment year on each original lot sold by the developer, its representatives or assigns, a special assessment, applicable to that year only, for the purpose of defraying, in whole or in part, the cost of unusual expenses and the cost of any construction of capital improvement upon the Common Properties, including the necessary fixtures and personal property related thereto, provided any such assessment shall have the affirmative of two thirds (2/3) of the votes of all voting members who are voting in person or by proxy at an annual or special meeting duly called for this purpose, written notice of which shall be sent to all members at least thirty (30) days and not more than forty five (45) days in advance and shall set forth the purpose of the meeting.

Section 4 Quorum for Any Action authorized Under Section 3 above: The quorum required for any action authorized under Section 3 hereof shall be as follows: At the first meeting called, as provided in Section 3 hereof, the presence at the meeting of Members of proxies entitled to cast sixty percent (60) of all votes of the membership shall constitute a quorum. If the required quorum is not forthcoming at any meeting, another meeting may be called, subject to the notice requirement set forth in Section 3 and the required meeting at any such subsequent meeting shall be two thirds (2/3) of the required quorum of the preceding meeting, provided that no such subsequent meeting shall be held more than sixty (60) days following the preceding meeting.

Section 5 Effect of Non-Payment of Assessment; the Personal Obligation of the Owner; the Lien; Remedies of the Association: If the assessments are not paid on the date when due, then thereon and cost of collection thereof as hereinafter provided thereupon become a continuing lien on the property in the hands of the then owner, his/her heirs, devisees, personal representatives and assigns. The personal obligation of the then owner to pay such assessments, however, shall remain his/her personal obligations for the Statutory period and shall not pass to his/her successors in title unless expressly assumed by them and paid prior to assuming title. If the assessment is not paid by July 1 of the current dues year, then the procedures regarding delinquent accounts as outlined in Section 1 of this Article shall be implemented. Lot owners whose assessments are unpaid on September 30th are not eligible to serve in any Association office or as a member of any Association Committee.

Section 6 Subordination of the Lien to Mortgages: The lien for the Assessments provided for herein shall be subordinate to the lien of any mortgage or mortgages now or hereafter placed upon the properties subject to assessment provided, however, that such subordination shall apply only to the assessments which have become due and payable prior to the sale or transfer of such property pursuant to a decree of foreclosure. Such sale or transfer shall not relieve such property owner from liability for any assessment thereafter becoming due, nor from the lien for any subsequent assessment.

Section 7 Exempt Property: The following property subject to this declaration shall be exempted from assessments, charges, and liens created herein:

- (a) All properties to the extent of any easement or other interest therein dedicated and accepted by local public authority and devoted to public use.
- (b) All Common Properties as defined in Article 1, Section 1 (c) hereof.
- (c) All properties exempted from taxation by the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania upon the terms and the extent of such legal exemption.
- (d) All Properties owned by the Developer, its successors and assigns, and held by them or any of them for sale or resale, including any lots which may have been required by the Developer.

Notwithstanding any provision herein, no land or improvements devoted to dwelling use shall be exempt from said assessments, charges, or liens.

ARTICLE IX- Architectural Control Committee:

Section 1 The Board shall appoint an Architectural Control Committee of ten (10) members plus the Executive Director and Secretary of the Association. All voting members, as defined in Article III, section 2, for any one lot who are in good standing are eligible to serve, however only one person named on the deed for any single lot may serve on the Architectural Committee at any one time. Three (3) members plus the Executive Director and Secretary are required to approve an Architecture application prior to Board approval. All members must sign Board Approved non-disclosure agreements and responsibility agreements to be a member of this committee.

Section 2 Review by Committee:

No building, dwelling, fence, or other structure shall be commenced, erected or maintained upon the properties, nor shall any exterior addition or change or alteration therein be made until the plans and specifications showing the nature, kind, shape, height, materials, and location of same shall have been submitted to the Architectural Control Committee for review and approved in writing by the Board of Directors as to harmony of external design and location in relation to surrounding structures and topography. Such plans and specifications shall conform to local and state sanitary, electrical, and building codes. In the event said board or its designated committee fail to approve or disapprove such design and location within fifteen (15) days after said plans and specifications have been properly and completely submitted approval will not be required and this article will be deemed to have been fully complied with. Virtual committee meetings and document review are allowed if the application documents can be reviewed digitally.

ARTICLE X - Building and Use Limitations:

Section 1 All lots not otherwise specifically designated upon a recorded plot or recorded declaration by the Developer, shall be used for residential purposes only, and no business, commercial, or manufacturing enterprise shall be conducted on said premises. No building shall be erected, altered, placed or permitted to remain on the premises other than one detached single-family dwelling not to exceed two stories in height, and a private garage for not more than two cars, with the exception of those buildings erected on lots having frontage on Pennsylvania Route 590. The minimum square footage for any single-family dwelling shall be 1120 square feet above ground, not to include the basement and/or garage. This requirement shall not apply to any homes or approved plans for new homes in place prior to the adoption of this requirement by the membership.

Section 2 No structure of a temporary character, trailer, basement, tent, shack, garage, bar or other outbuilding shall be used on any lot at any time as a residence; either temporarily or permanently except with prior written consent of the Association. The term "trailer" shall include those trailer or mobile home units commonly found in "trailer parks" whether in single or double widths and of all lengths whether or not permanently affixed to the building lot.

ARTICLE XI - Amendments:

These By-Laws may be altered, amended or repealed by affirmative vote of a majority of property owners voting either in person or by proxy, in accordance with voting rights as set forth in ARTICLE III, Section 4, provided that notice of the proposed alteration, amendment or repeals is contained in the notice of the meeting as set forth in ARTICLE V, Section

ARTICLE XII – DUE PROCESS

Section 1 Review Committee – Structure and Jurisdiction.

(a) The Board of Directors shall appoint a seven (7) member Review Committee following the Annual Meeting, with each member serving a one-year term. Three of the Committee members shall be Directors. Any Review Committee vacancy shall be filled by the Board of Directors at the next Board meeting. All voting members, as defined in Article III, section 2, for any one lot who are in good standing are eligible to serve, however only one person named on the deed for any single lot may serve on the Review Committee at any one time. All members must sign Board Approved non-disclosure agreements and responsibility agreements to be a member of this committee. The Review Committee shall meet at such times as it shall determine. A quorum of 5 (five) members is required. Virtual meetings may be held with the exception of appeal meetings. Lot numbers not names are to be used in all Virtual meetings.

(b) The Review committee shall have responsibility to receive complaints and evaluate alleged violations of the community documents other than purely architectural matters. The Architectural committee, created by Article XI of these Bylaws, shall have jurisdiction over the approval of architectural matters, including construction of homes and other improvements on residential property.

Section 2 Due Process Procedure.

- (a) If any unit owner observes a potential violation of the Association's Covenants, Bylaws, and/or Rules and Regulations and wishes the Association to investigate and prosecute the alleged violation, the unit owner must complete and sign an Association form verifying the dates, facts, and alleged violation that the unit owner has witnessed. By submitting the form, the complaining unit owner also agrees to testify at any future proceeding regarding the alleged violation.
- (b) Upon receipt of the completed complaint form, the Association's Review Committee Chair will designate a third-party inspector to investigate the allegations in the complaint. The investigation must be completed within ten (10) days of assignment and shall require the submission of a signed report the Review Committee evidencing the date of the investigation, the facts observed at the site, any photos or other exhibits created, and a - recommendation as to whether a violation exists, and if so, the appropriate sanction.

- (c) If the Review Committee determines that no violation exists, the Review Committee shall notify the complainant and alleged violator of the findings in writing.
 - (d) If the Review Committee finds there is a violation, the Review Committee shall send a violation notice to the unit owner in question containing the following information:
 - (1) the facts observed and the date they were;
 - (2) the full text of the applicable Covenants, Bylaws, and /or Rules that are allegedly violated;
 - (3) a deadline for compliance before any additional fines are assessed;
 - (4) notice that the violating unit owner can appeal the violation notice to the full Review Committee at a future hearing;
 - (5) an explanation of the appeal procedures; and
 - (6) a notice of the proposed sanction should the unit owner fail to take the necessary steps to comply or appeal. The violation notice shall be sent via certified mail and regular mail.
 - (e) Any appeal must be submitted in writing to the Review Committee within ten (10) days of the certified mail having been accepted or refused. The appeal shall state the date the violation notice was received and the basis for the appeal.
 - (f) If a property owner fails to request an appeal hearing before the Review Committee or does not participate in the scheduled hearing, the member shall have no further right to appeal the matter. The property owner will then be designated a member not in good standing until all violations are corrected and fines are paid.
 - (g) Upon receipt of an appeal letter that complies with this Article, the Review Committee shall schedule an appeal hearing within thirty (30) days. The Hearing notice shall identify the date, time, and place of the hearing. If the violating unit owner requests a continuance, the unit owner must do so at least five days before the dated of the haring. Only one continuance may be requested.
 - (h) If a unit owner appeals a violation notice to the Review Committee, the unit owner will be considered a member in good standing pending resolution of the matter, but only if the unit owner is otherwise in compliance with all other Covenants, Bylaws and Rules and is current in all assessments and other charges owed to the Association.
 - (i) All hearings shall be closed to the membership except for those persons who intend to testify.
 - (j) At the hearing, the property owner who is the alleged violator can provide information and evidence in defense of the violation. Procedurally, the Association must first present the testimony of the complaining property owner and the investigator, who will then be subject to cross examination. After the evidence by the Association has been presented, the violating property owner may then testify and be subject to questioning by the association. The violating property owner may also call additional witnesses in defense of the violation. The property owner may choose to have counsel present. Statements and evidence may be heard from all parties concerned who wish to be heard, so long as all statements and other evidence shall be limited to the violation in question.

- (k) At the conclusion of the appeal hearing, the Review Committee must submit a written recommendation to the Board of Directors within five (5) days. The recommendation of the Review committee must identify:
 - (1) whether a violation exists;
 - (2) what standards have been violated; and
 - (3) the proposed sanction. The committee's recommendation shall also be sent to the violating unit owner.
- (l) The Board of Directors shall act on the recommendation at its next regular meeting. At that meeting, the violating unit owner shall be permitted to address the Board, in executive session, to raise arguments against the Review Committee's recommendation. No new evidence may be presented to the Board at that time.
- (m) The determination of the Board of Directors shall be final and shall be confirmed in writing to the unit owner in question.
- (n) If found to be in violation by the Board, the unit owner will be deemed a member not in good standing until the property is brought into full compliance. In addition, the Board may impose any fines authorized by the Rules and Regulations.
- (o) Violating members shall be responsible for all costs incurred by the Association to enforce the community's governing documents, including but not limited to, attorney's fees and court costs.

Section 3 Non-exclusivity.

This due process procedure is an internal administrative process only and is not the Association's exclusive enforcement remedy. The Association at all times has the right to pursue any and all available remedies at law or in equity to enforce its community's governing document, with or without resort to the internal due process procedures identified.
